DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledgment is made of the amendment filed 2/12/04. Claims pending are 19, 21-23 and 25-38. Claims 1-18, 20 and 24 have been cancelled. Claims 19 and 23 have been amended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. The rejection of Claims 19, 21-23, 24-26, 28-30, 36 and 38 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bil (US 3,632,582), supplied by the Applicant, is maintained for the reasons of the record.
3. The rejection of Claims 27 and 31-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bil as applied to claim 23 above, and further in view of Rose et al. (US 4,900,327), is maintained for the reasons of the record.
4. The rejection of Claims 35 and 37 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bil as applied to claim 23 above, and further in view of Grollier et al. (US 4,566,875), is maintained for the reasons of the record.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 2/12/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
6. The Applicant argues that "[e]ven though Bil discloses that a C6 substituted nitro-p-phenylenediamine compound may be used in a hair dye formulation, he does not disclose that such a compound imparts a reddish color to the treated hair. Since no teaching is present in this reference that suggests that the C6 substituted compounds impart a reddish color to hair, it cannot therefore be implied that C5 substituted compounds would provide such a hair coloring effect." See pp. 8-9 of the Remarks. In response it is noted, that "a reddish color" is an inherent property of the C5 substituted nitro-p-phenylenediamine compound. If one skill of the art selects a C5 substitution as suggested by Bil, he or she would inherently obtain a reddish coloring effect.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
